

Ha Noi, July. 26.., 2016

SCIENTIFIC WORKSHOP NOTIFICATION

To Whom It Concern

Vietnam Institute of Geosciences and Mineral Resources (VIGMR) is pleased to announce:

Within the framework of project: "Study on the potential use of vetiver grass (Chrysopogon zizanioides L) in mitigating soil contaminated by toxic chemicals and dioxins – A case study at Bien Hoa airbase", being permitted and funded by Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment (MONRE), VIGMR is going to organize the international workshop entitled: "Heavy metals, Dioxins and Persistent Organic Pollutants (POPs) - their impacts and the potential use of Vetiver Grass for remediation" on October 25-26, 2016.

Venue: the Hall 3rd Floor, VIGMR, 67 Chien Thang, Van Quan, Ha Dong, Hanoi.

Language: English

The subject of Presentation: Dioxins pollution, Heavy metal pollution, POPs pollution, Environmental geology, Application of Vetiver Grass for remediation and Biotechnology in contaminated soil and water treatment.

The deadline for registration (form) and submit paper abstracts: August 8, 2016; submit the full paper (according to the accompanying instructions of maximum 6,000 words): September 12, 2016. Please send to the e-mail: letuyeticec@gmail.com; or ngothithuyhuong@gmail.com.

If more details are needed, please contact Ms. Le Thi Tuyet, mobile: 0948338169, e-mail: letuyeticec@gmail.com or Dr. Ngo Thi Thuy Huong, mobile: 0917709596, email: ngothithuyhuong@gmail.com

Recipient:

- As above;
- Save: clerical

DIRECTOR

(sign and seal)

